WINTER 2023

Immerse yourself into the most nonsensical pub this Christmas. The Owl & Hitchhiker takes on Edward Lear and Douglas Adams' alternative world views of science and nonsense and slams them together through an infinite improbability drive. There is so much to explore this Christmas at our far-out pub.

SPACES

THE MAIN PUB

Capacity: 80 Standing | 40 Seated

This ground floor oasis is perfect for your regular pub mishaps, with eclectic design and décor there is never a dull moment for your eye to look at. This area is ideal for sit down luncheons, dinners and drink get-togethers with colleagues, friends and family.

THE CONSERVATORY

Capacity: 100 Standing | 50 Seated

Where all the late-night dancing takes place. The stone floor, booths, tables and soon to be centre-stage large parties; sit down dinners, buffets, quiz, and all things entertainment are catered for right here. During the day it's a great spot to grab a bite and a drink and by (weekend) night this space can transform into a gig space and dancefloor; The Conservatory is perfect to book semi-privately to host your own event.

THE MEZZANINE

Capacity:
25 Standing | 20 Seated
25 Standing | 22 Seated

Split into two areas this is perfect to book an informal get-together with your friends or work colleagues. Semi-private you get the lofty views of the venue below by peering through the foliage.

EDDIE'S BAR

Capacity: 100 Standing | 50 Seated

This first-floor hidden gem is absolutely a must book for any Christmas party, day or night. It can be booked exclusively with the adjoining bar or areas reserved for dinner, drinks and Sunday roasts.

Daytime events are easily catered for as the space is filled with natural light, and has flexible furnishings, WIFI access – perfect for meetings and workshops, then as the sun sets – we crank it up, turn up the volume of the tunes and the space transforms into a great private room perfect for any celebration; birthday, Christmas, formal dinners, good ol' knees up.
